

Homework Report Guidelines for All Students

All reports should begin with a statement of whether you were able to complete the assignment and get your code working. Also summarize your performance results in a sentence or two. Reports should contain typical information containing at least the following in whatever order/style/format you choose:

- Problem Description
- Approach
- Results
- Analysis
- Conclusions
- Pledge